Key highlights:

- Kuwait-based telecommunications provider Kuwait Star Telecom Services has signed an agreement to be a reseller of Flexiroam's Travel products
- Kuwait Star Telecom is a leading telecommunications solutions provider in Kuwait, selling various internet devices such as routers and SIM's as well as offering services including internet maintenance and device repairs, through 19 stores spread across Kuwait
- The agreement will see Kuwait Star resell Flexiroam's Travel products including SIM cards and data bundles through its various store fronts in Kuwait

Flexiroam Limited (ASX: FRX) today announced that it has signed a reseller agreement with Kuwait-based telecommunication solutions provider, Kuwait Star Telecom Services. Under the agreement, Kuwait Star will become a Flexiroam reseller, selling Travel SIM and data bundles through its traditional retail stores.

Kuwait Star Telecom Services is a leading telecommunications products and services provider in Kuwait being one of the first to bring internet devices to Kuwait in 2007. Today it offers both maintenance & repair services and a large suite of high-quality telecommunications devices and products through its 19 stores spread across all governorates of Kuwait.

Flexiroam CEO & Executive Director Marc Barnett said: "We are happy that Kuwait Star Telecom Services has chosen to be a reseller of our Flexiroam Travel products, complementing its suite of leading network and telecommunications products. Kuwait Star has an established presence within Kuwait, with 19 stores in its portfolio and the reseller agreement will allow us to scale data usage within the region."

"We continue to seek Travel partnerships with leading businesses across key sectors and geographies, allowing us to leverage their profile and customer base to grow our market visibility and user base. We have a strong pipeline of partnership opportunities and look forward to further growing our Travel business globally, via channel partners."
